

“My vision for AVA is a place that is perpetually chic and of enduring style, featuring furnishings with simple lines situated in intelligently-planned spaces with strong architectural character. The goal is to create a landmark project within Seattle’s personality – to be placed as a design marker in an ever-increasing global society.”

Garret Cord Werner

Founder and principal of Garret Cord Werner LLC, Garret Werner’s work, which has been featured in publications such as Better Homes and Gardens and The Vancouver Sun, balances functionality with “understated urban elegance.” Named one of the “100 People, Places, and Things That Define Seattle” by Seattle Homes and Lifestyles in February 2006, his projects have won frequent design awards for their use of avant-garde and environmentally friendly materials and fusion of “metropolitan necessities” — storage, convenience, and multi-use spaces.
